ESSEX BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

This beautiful town, the ancient Chebacco of the Indian aborigines, and for 120 years the second parish of Ipswich, has long been noted for its ship building enterprise and the energetic character of its inhabitants; also as the birth-place of Rufus Choate. James Fennimore Cooper in his popular novel, "the Pilot" makes Capt. Barnstable commander of the "Ariel" a native of "old Chebacco," and Capt. E. K. Kane made his remarkable voyage to the Polar regions in a vessel built on Chebacco River. Essex is situated 27 miles from Boston and 8 from Salem, and is connected by a branch line (at Wenham) with the Eastern division of the B. & M. railroad. Shell fish of very excellent quality are found in large quantities upon the banks of the shore.

MANCHESTER BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

This attractive seaboard town well known as a place of delightful summer resort, is eight miles from Salem, and twenty-five miles north-east from Boston. It was set off from Salem in 1645, and was named in honor of the Duke of Manchester. To the summer residents, many of whom reside here for the greater part of the year, it possesses many attractions, in its beautiful scenery, drives and excellent surf bathing. The singing beach is a great curiosity to the strangers who drive here daily, and the Masconomo House located near by, is one of the finest watering place hotels in the country. The town has a beautiful stone Memorial Hall presented by Mr. T. Jefferson Coolidge, and a public library of about 5000 volumes. The industries are the manufacturing of fine furniture, boots and shoes, bricks, cordage, twine, etc.
