1. AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE. This association dates its origin to 1840, when on the 2d of April of that year, some eighteen gentlemen, principally connected with the several State Geological Surveys then in progress, met in Philadelphia and organized under the name of "The Association of American Geologists." At the meeting in Boston, in 1842, it was decided to enlarge the object so as to include the collateral branches, and the name to that of "The Association of American Geologists and Naturalists." In 1847, the objects were still further enlarged so as to include all departments of science. A new organization was effected under the present name, and the first meeting was held at Philadelphia, September 20, 1848. This association is international, covering as it does the continent of America, migratory in its meetings, which have been held in various cities of the Union and Canada annually, except during the years 1861-65, when they were suspended in consequence of the unsettled condition of the country. A volume of proceedings has been printed for each of these meetings. The officers are elected annually, except the permanent Secretary. The office of the Permanent Secretary, Prof. F. W. III. A type collection of minerals illustrating the edition of Dana's Mineralogy, used in our schools, and a collection illustrating the historic geology of the earth.

IV. A collection of objects illustrating the dress, religious customs, implements of war and of domestic use, and objects of art of the native races of China, Japan, Siam, India, Korea, Africa, Polynesia, North and South America etc., in the new east hall. This collection originated in 1799 with the formation of the East India Marine Society, and has had an uninterrupted existence since that date. It was greatly increased in 1868 by the specimens received from the Essex Institute, and large additions have since been made by the Academy trustees.

An historical collection of portraits of prominent Salem merchants, members and officers of the East India Marine Society, together with many interesting relics connected with the early social character of that institution, and models and pictures of Salem merchant vessels. These form an interesting memorial of the commercial history of Salem.

The Academy has published two volumes of memoirs and annual reports; it has conducted classes in botany, mineralogy and zoology, and for several years held a summer school of biology. Lectures upon subjects connected with natural history and ethnology are given annually in Academy Hall.

The average number of visitors to the Museum has been over 51,000 annually during the past five years.

The Museum is open free to the public every week-day from 9 A. M. to 5 o'clock P. M. and Sundays from 2 to 5 P. M.

The large addition, built in 1885, for the purpose of increasing the Museum accommodations, has on the lower floor a fine lecture hall, known as Academy Hall. It has a seating capacity of 350, is centrally located, comfortably seated, well ventilated, and is in every respect a first class audience room. The hall is used for lectures by the academy, and is rented for concerts, lectures and readings.

9. SALEM ATHENÆUM was incorporated in March, 1810. Its conception was suggested by the Boston Athenæum, organized some three years earlier. The characters of the two institutions are in many respects similar, the incorporated objects of both being the promotion of literature, the arts and sciences. The Salem Athenæum purchased the social and philosophical libraries. The former organized in 1761, the latter in 1781. The Athenæum rooms in Central building, Market (now Central street) were opened to the proprietors on Wednesday, July 11, 1810, with a good collection of books, properly arranged and classified. In April, 1815, the library was removed to rooms in Essex place; in 1825, to rooms over the Salem Bank; in 1841, to Lawrence place, and in 1857 to Plummer Hall. The present number of volumes, about 24,500. Miss Caroline Plummer, daughter of Dr. Joshua and Olive (Lyman) Plummer, born Jan. 13, 1780, and died at Salem, May 15, 1854, bequeathed to the proprietors of the Athenæum $30,000, for the purchasing of land and the erecting thereon a building known as Plummer Hall, in which are deposited the libraries of the Salem Athenæum, Essex So. In 1867 the building was sold to the Trustees of the Peabody Academy of Science, and the Museum was placed in the hands of the Academy as a permanent deposit. 12. THE SALEM FRATERNITY. On the 7th of February, 1869, Mr. Alfred Stone of Providence, formerly a resident of Salem, by invitation addressed a meeting at the East Church, explaining the working of the Providence Union. The next evening a few persons came together in the parlors of Benjamin H. Silsbee, Esq., to confer upon the matter further. Other meetings followed at the same place, and resulted in the formation of the Salem Fraternity; object, "to provide evening instruction and amusement" for such of our population as, "being confined to their work during the day, need recreation at the close of their labors." On the evening of the 21st of April, 1869, the western range of rooms on the second floor of Downing's Block, 175 Essex street, was opened for the purpose, from front to rear. The Amusement Room.—The number in attendance fluctuates with the season and with the attractions outside. In the warm weather and short evenings a few only will appear. During the long winter evenings, especially if cold and stormy, this comfortable room is much prized. The Library.—It began with a few shelves of books, miscellaneous and unselected, in a small, back room. There are now 4221 volumes in the library; 500 for reference only, gathered by gift wholly. It was the first free library in Salem. Its large number of readers shows an active circulation. The Reading Room is supplied with the Salem papers by the favor of the publishers, and from some of their offices come, besides, many of their most desirable exchanges; several daily and weekly newspapers, pictorial weeklies, religious, scientific and literary periodicals, find their way to the tables, at a very small outlay of money. In 1875 the Fraternity became incorporated under the Statutes of Massachusetts. Francis H. Lee, Pres.; George L. Allen, V. Pres.; Frank E.

Locke, Treas.; George W. Mansfield, Sec.; Wm. D. Northend, Wm. Northey, Francis H. Lee, F. E. Locke, Mrs. F. H. Lee, Miss E. Wheatland, Miss S. L. Kimball, Miss E. W. Silsbee, Directors.

John Bertram offered to the city his late residence on Essex street to be used for the purpose of establishing a Public Library. On the twenty-seventh of December, 1887, the city accepted the gift and instructed its committee to petition the Legislature for authority to issue bonds to the amount of $25,000 for the use of the library. The library was opened to the public for the delivery of books, July 8, 1889. There are now in the library, Dec. 14, 1896, 33,078 volumes.
