TOILET SETS AND DINNER SETS AT
J. L. LOUGEE COMPANY'S, - 277-281 Essex Street, Salem, Mass.

Under the instrument of trust East India Marine Hall (erected in 1824), was purchased and refitted, and the Museum of the East India Marine Society (begun in 1799), and the Natural History Collections of the Essex Institute (begun in 1834), received by the trustees as permanent deposits, were placed therein. To these have been added many valuable collections especially in the Oriental department.

The arrangement of the Museum is educational, and not merely for the purpose of exhibiting curiosities. It is especially designed to aid the teachers of the county in connection with school work. Cards on many of the objects give lists of books in the Salem Public Library relating to the collections.

The collections in the public exhibition halls may be summarized as follows:—

ENTRANCE CORRIDOR.

Collection illustrating the whaling industry and the natural history of whales; maps of Essex County, Mass.—geological, topographical and coast.

MARINE ROOM.

Collection of portraits of prominent Salem merchants, members and officers of the East India Marine Society, together with many interesting relics connected with the early social character of that institution, nautical instruments and objects associated with a sailor's life and models and pictures of Salem merchant vessels. These are preserved as a special collection in a hall on the first floor and form an interesting memorial of the commercial history of Salem.

HALL OF NATURAL HISTORY (upstairs).

A nearly complete collection of the animals and minerals and rocks of Essex County; a collection of woods of the trees of Essex County and one of the pre-historic relics of the county; a large collection of the dried plants of the county, in cabinets in the lower rooms, which may be consulted by students upon application at the office.

A synoptical collection illustrating the animal kingdom from the lowest to the highest forms, arranged and labelled according to the text books in common use in schools and colleges.

A type collection of minerals illustrating the edition of Dana's Mineralogy used in schools, and one of fossils illustrating the historical geology of the earth, from the oldest to the most recent formations.

HALL OF ETHNOLOGY.

A collection arranged by countries, of objects illustrating the every-day life, dress and religious customs, the implements of war and of domestic use, and objects of art and the native races of Malay Archipelago, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and North and South America. This collection was begun in 1799 by the East India Marine Society, and has had an uninterrupted existence since that date.

THE WELD HALL.

The most recent addition to the museum, the gift of Dr. Charles G. Weld, opened June 28, 1907. This absolutely fire-proof building provides admirably arranged work rooms and offices on the lower floor, and, above, a hall devoted to the collection of Oriental Ethnology; Japan, Yezo, Korea, China, Siam and India.

Academy Hall, in the addition erected in 1885, has a seating capacity of 350; it is centrally located, comfortably seated, well ventilated, and is in every respect a first class audience room. The hall is used for lectures by the Academy, and is rented for concerts, lectures, and readings.

The Academy has published two volumes of memoirs and annual reports; it has conducted classes in botany, mineralogy, and zoology, and for several years held a summer school of biology.

The average number of visitors to the Museum is about 60,000 annually.

The work of the institution is conducted and the museum maintained entirely from the income of the trust fund and the contributions of generous friends. The annual expenses have increased with the growth of the museum, and the work and usefulness of the institution could always be greatly advanced by additions to its fund and income.

Officers: George Augustus Peabody, Pres.; Elihu Thomson, Vice Pres.; Abner C. Goodell, Sec.; who, together with John Robinson, Francis H. Lee, Francis H. Appleton, Dudley L. Pickman, William C. Endicott and Richard Wheatland, form the Board of Trustees; George A. Vickery, Treas.; Edward S. Morse, Director; Lawrence W. Jenkins, curator of ethnology; Clarence E. 11. SALEM ATHENÆUM was incorporated in March, 1810. Its conception was suggested by the Boston Athenæum, organized some three years earlier. The characters of the two institutions are in many respects similar, the incorporated objects of both being the promotion of literature, the arts and sciences. The Salem Athenæum purchased the social and philosophical libraries, the former organized in 1761, the latter in 1781. The Athenæum rooms in Central Building, Market (now Central) street, were opened to the proprietors on Wednesday, July 11, 1810, with a good collection of books, properly arranged and classified. In April, 1815, the library was removed to rooms in Essex Place; in 1825, to rooms over the Salem bank; in 1841, to Lawrence place; in 1857 to Plummer Hall, the first building of the Athenæum situated at 134 Essex street, and in 1907 to the new building situated at 339 Essex street, likewise named Plummer Hall. The present number of volumes is about 26,000. The sum of $30,000 for the purchasing of land and the erecting thereon a building, was bequeathed by Miss Caroline Plummer, daughter of Dr. Joshua and Olive (Lyman) Plummer, born Jan. 13, 1780, and died at Salem, May 15, 1854, to the proprietors of the Athenæum. The Athenæum is managed by trustees, annually chosen by the stockholders; each shareholder may take out books upon the payment of the annual assessment of five dollars. Trustees: Henry A. Hale, Stephen Phillips, Joseph N. Ashton, Alden P. White, Geo. R. Jewett, William C. Waters, jr., Arthur W. West, John S. Williams, Nathaniel A. Very, Henry A. Hale, President; Joseph N. Ashton, Clerk; N. A. Very, Treas.; Mrs. Arthur R. Stone, Librarian; Miss Harriet M. Taggard, Assistant.

The collections formed were first deposited in the building on the corner of Essex and Washington streets. In 1804 they were removed to the Salem Bank Building, on the site of Downing's Block, and in 1825 to the East India Marine Hall, erected for the accommodation of this valuable collection. In 1867 the building was sold to the Trustees of the Peabody Academy of Science, and the museum was placed in the hands of the Academy Trustees as a permanent deposit. Although no longer conducting the museum, or making nautical observations, the charitable objects of the society are

15. THE SALEM FRATERNITY was organized in 1869 to provide evening instruction and amusement for those who "being confined to their work during the day need recreation at the close of their labors."

A few years' experience showed that the greatest need was among the boys and young men. Thus began the work of the oldest "Boy's Club" in the country. After renting various rooms, a permanent and suitable "home" for the work was secured in 1899 in the "Old Bank Building", at 11 Central st. The rooms are open from 8 a. m. to 12 m. and 7 to 9 p. m. (except holidays). The attendance is about 45,000 by some 3,000 different boys every year. The entertainment and instruction is largely provided by volunteer helpers.

The Indoor Work. The gymnasium and free shower baths are open every day from 8 a. m. to 12 m. and 7 to 9 p. m. except holidays.

Hand Craft Classes are maintained in printing, cobbling, carpentering, basket making, fret sawing, clay modeling, wood burning, wood carving, from fall to spring. There is also a chance for foreign boys to learn English, even when the evening schools are not in session. Several Debating and Study Clubs are maintained.

A Reading Room and Library of 700 "Books for Boys" are maintained; also, a penny savings bank and a free employment bureau.

The Game Room is perhaps the most important of any department, for it is here that the personal influence of the volunteer helper touches the life of the boy in his play, and with lasting effect.

The Outdoor Work has consisted of Holiday Excursions, Baseball and outdoor games, and ten weeks of "Camping Out" during the summer, when 100 boys are given "a week in the country" at the permanent camp at Sawyer's Island, Rowley, Mass.

Evening School, fall term continues from Sept. until city evening schools open, spring term begins when city schools close and continues until the last of June. There are about 150 volunteer teachers, half of these coming from the Normal School.

The officers are: Pres. Edward H. Osgood; Sec., George W. Mansfield; Treas., Stephen W. Phillips, 35 Warren st.; Superintendent, Herbert C. Farwell; Janitor, James E. Wendell.

17. SALEM PUBLIC LIBRARY. On the first of December, 1887, the heirs of Capt. John Bertram offered to the city his late residence on Essex street to be used for the purpose of establishing a Public Library. On the twenty-seventh of December, 1887, the city accepted the gift, and instructed its committee to petition the Legislature for authority to issue bonds to the amount of $25,000 for the use of the library. The library was opened to the public for the delivery of books July 8, 1889. There are now (1911) in the library, 54,000 vols. By the provision of the deed of gift, the management of the library is vested in a board of seven trustees, six selected for life by the City Council, and the
