

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

This school was opened Sept. 12, 1854. It was the fourth normal school established by the State of Massachusetts, and is one of the oldest in the country. Richard Edwards, L. L. D., was principal three years; Prof. Alpheus Crosby, eight years; Daniel B. Hagar, Ph. D., thirty-one years; Walter P. Beckwith, Ph. D., ten years. The present principal began service January 30, 1906. The regular course of study occupies two years for those preparing to teach in the primary grades and three years for those preparing to teach in the grammar grades. A diploma is given when any course is satisfactorially completed. Course for commercial teachers, four years. Advanced courses of one and two years are offered for graduates of colleges and normal schools, and teachers of experience. Tuition and text books are free to residents of Massachusetts. Pecuniary aid is given to needy pupils. The Normal School building, cor. Broad and Summer streets was dedicated Sept. 14, 1854, and was remodeled in 1871. The fine school building at the corner of Lafayette street and Loring avenue was dedicated Jan. 26, 1897, and a second building, for the training school, was first occupied Dec. 1, 1913.

This institution was formed by the union of the Essex Historical and Essex County Natural History Societies, in February 1848. The former society was incorporated in 1821, the latter in 1836. In February, 1870, an act was passed enlarging the powers of the Institute so as to include its objects the promotion of the arts, science and literature, in addition to those of the original societies. Its library contains 500,000 volumes, exclusive of duplicates, and embracing all departments of literature. Its museum contains a large collection of antiquarian and historical relics, paintings, engravings, medals, coins, paper currency, etc. In the garden in the rear is preserved a dwelling house built in 1684 an old time shoemaker's shop and other antiquarian objects. The scientific portion is deposited in the museum of the Peabody Academy of Science. At the time of its removal the collection contained over 125,000 specimens in the departments of Ethnology, Zoology, Botany, Mineralogy, and Geology, scientifically arranged, and in good part labelled and catalogued. Its publications are the "Proceedings of the Essex Institute," 6 vols.; "The Naturalist," vol. 1 (afterward transferred to the Peabody Academy of Science); "Bulletin of the Essex Institute," 30 volumes, 8 vol.; "Historical Collec-

9. PEABODY MUSEUM, 161 Essex street. Museum open from 9 a m. to 5 p m. Sundays, 2 to 5 p. m. The "Trustees of the Peabody Museum" organized in 1868, having received funds by gift in 1867 from George Peabody, born in S. Danvers, Essex Co., 1795, died London, 1869, for the promotion of Science and Useful Knowledge in the County of Essex.

Under the instrument of trust East India Marine Hall (erected in 1824) was purchased and refitted, and the Museum of the East India Marine Society (begun in 1799) and the Natural History Collections of the Essex Institute (begun in 1834), received by the trustees as permanent deposits, were placed therein. To these have been added many valuable collections especially in the Oriental department.

The museum is arranged for the rational amusement of the public and the education of the student. It is especially designed to aid the teachers of the county in connection with school work.

BLUE FLAME OIL STOVES AT
J. L. LOUGEE COMPANY'S 277-281 Essex Street, Salem, Mass.

The collections in the public exhibition halls may be summarized as follows:—

ENTRANCE CORRIDOR

Collection illustrating the whaling industry and the natural history of whales; also special temporary exhibits of objects, photographs, etc.

MARINE ROOM

Collection of portraits of prominent Salem merchants, members and officers of the East India Marine Society, together with many interesting relics connected with the early social character of that institution, nautical instruments and objects associated with a sailor's life, models illustrating marine architecture and pictures and rigged models of Salem Merchant vessels. These are preserved as a special collection in a hall on the first floor and form an interesting memorial of the commercial history of Salem.

HALL OF NATURAL HISTORY. (upstairs.)

A nearly complete collection of the animals and minerals and rocks of Essex County; a collection of woods of the trees of Essex County and one of the prehistoric relics. A large collection of the dried plants of the county, in cabinets in the lower rooms, which may be consulted by students upon application at the office.

A synoptical collection illustrating the animal kingdom from the lowest to the highest forms, arranged and labelled according to the text books in common use in schools and colleges.

A type collection of minerals illustrating the edition of Dana's Mineralogy used in schools, and one of fossils illustrating the historical geology of the earth from the oldest to the most recent formations.

HALL OF ETHNOLOGY

A collection arranged by countries, of objects illustrating the every-day life, dress and religious customs, the implements of war and of domestic use, and objects of art and the native races of Malay Archipelago, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and North and South America. This collection was begun in 1799 by the East India Marine Society, and has had an uninterrupted existence since that date.

THE WELD HALL.

The most recent addition to the museum, the gift of the late Dr. Charles G. Weld, opened June 28, 1907. This fire-proof building provides admirably arranged work rooms and offices on the lower floor, and, above, a hall devoted to the collection of Oriental Ethnology; Japan, Yezo, Korea, China, Siam and India. Academy Hall, in the addition erected in 1885 has a seating capacity of 350; it is centrally located, comfortably seated, well ventilated, and is in every respect a first class audience room. The hall is used for lectures of the museum, and is rented for concerts, lectures, and readings.

The institution has conducted classes in botany, mineralogy, and zoology, and has published memoirs and reports, a pocket guide to the birds and special papers relating to the collections.

The average number of visitors to the Museum, is about 70,000 annually.

The work of the institution is conducted and the museum maintained entirely from the income of the trust fund and the contributions of generous friends. The annual expenses have increased with the growth of the museum, and the work and usefulness of the institution could always be greatly advanced by additions to its fund and income.

Officers: George Augustus Peabody, Pres.; Elihu Thomson, Vice-Pres.; Richard Wheatland, Sec.; who, together with John Robinson, John C. Phillips, Francis H. Appleton, Dudley L. Pickman, William C. Endicott and Frank W. Benson, form the Board of Trustees; George A. Vickery, Treas.; Edward S. Morse, Director; John Robinson, in charge of Marine Room; Lawrence W. Jenkins, Asst. Director and Curator of natural history; J. Russell Treadwell, Supt. Buildings and Agent of Academy Hall.

10. PLUMMER FARM SCHOOL OF REFORM FOR BOYS. This school was founded by the bequest of Miss Caroline Plummer. It is a school of reform for boys in the city of Salem. The amount of the bequest was $25,000. Present fund, $50,000. Inc. May 21, 1855. Building erected 1870. School was opened Sept. 23, 1870. Trustees: Matthew Robson, President; John B. Tivan, Sec.; Charles B. Fowler, term expires February 1, 1916; William M. Jelly, Rob-in Darnon, term expires 1917; William S. McIntire, Matthew Robson, Frank S. Atwood, term expires 1919; William S. McIntire, William S. Nichols, terms expire 1918; Alvah P. Thompson, Joho J. Howe, terms expire 1920. Annual meeting in December. Superintendent, Frank U. Wetmore; Matron, Mrs. Frank U. Wetmore. A generous bequest of $35,000 was left to the school by the will of the late Captain John Bert-ram. Number of boys in school, 35.

11. THE ROPES MEMORIAL was established under the wills of Mary Pickman Ropes (1843-1903) and Eliza Orne Ropes (1837-1907) for the preservation of the home-stead owned and occupied by Judge Nathaniel Ropes (1726-1774) and his descendants for four generations and for the maintenance of botanical lectures and a garden for flowers, with a desire to beautify the city and contribute to the pleasure and instruction of its citizens.

The Mansion House (318 Essex st.) was built about 1719 and was purchased by Judge Nathaniel Ropes in 1768. Judge Ropes was the son of a previous Nathaniel whose grand-father, George Ropes, the founder of the family in America, came from England about 1642. Judge Ropes' son, the third Nathaniel was the next owner and from him the house descended to the fourth Nathaniel and his sister, Sally Fiske (Ropes) Orne, who occupied the mansion until her death in 1876. Nathaniel Ropes (4th) lived in Cincinnati and was the father of Eliza and Mary Ropes the founders of the memorial, who with their sister Sarah and brother, the fifth Nathaniel, owned and occupied the house after the death of Mrs. Orne, until their respective deaths. The house formerly stood directly upon the street but was moved back and remodelled by the Misses Ropes in 1894. The memorial is managed by a board of trustees appointed by the court and incorporated by a special act of the Massachusetts Legislature in February, 1912, as the "Trustees of the Ropes Memorial."

The mansion house contains much interesting old furniture of the period of 1750 to 1790 and furniture, portraits, etc. of 1815-1840, appropriately arranged in the parlor, dining room and four chambers. The entire contents of the house belonged to members of the Ropes family. In the china room, which was especially built for it, is a large set of Nanking table china imported about 1815, and, also a fine set of Russian glass of the same period. One room is reserved as a relic room or museum where documents, silhouettes, wearing apparel, embroideries, etc., are gathered and marked with descriptive labels. Another room on the lower floor is used for the business meetings of the trustees and for the botanical lectures which are given annually under a special provision of the wills. The estate is surrounded by a high brick wall on three sides with an open fence on Essex st. A formal garden at the rear of the house is separated from the front lawns by a terrace and low wall and is planted with a large variety of shrubs and flowers.

The trustees are: William R. Colby, Pres.; John P. Felt, Vice Pres.; John F. Browning, Eugene J. Fabens, John P. Felt, William S. Felton, George W. Grant, William M. Jelly, Robert M. Mahoney, Edward S. Morse, John Robinson, Francis A. Seamans. The officers are: Charles F. Grush, Sec. and Treas. (Naumkeag Trust Co); Miss Nellie S. Messer, Curator (The Mansion, 318 Essex St.). Mayborn T. Woodworth, Head Gardener.

The Mansion House is open to visitors on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons from 2 until 5 o'clock excepting on holidays. The garden is open every afternoon through the summer season from 2 until 5 o'clock.

12. SALEM ATHENAEUM was incorporated in March 1810. Its conception was suggested by the Boston Athenaeum, organized some three years earlier. The characters of the two institutions are in many respects similar, the incorporated objects of both being the promotion of literature, the arts and sciences. The Salem Athenaeum purchased the social and philosophical libraries, the former organized in 1761, the latter 1871. The Athenaeum rooms in Central Building, Market (now Central) street, were opened to the proprietors on Wednesday, July 11, 1810, with a good collection of books, properly arranged and classified. In April, 1815, the library was removed to rooms in Essex Place; in 1825, to rooms over the Salem bank; in 1841, to Lawrence place; in 1857, to Plummer Hall, the first building of the Athenaeum situated at 134 Essex street, and in 1907 to the new building situated at 339 Essex street, likewise named Plummer Hall. The present number of volumes is about 26,000. The sum of $30,000 for the purchasing of land and the erecting thereon a building was bequeathed by Miss Caroline Plummer, daughter of Dr. Joshua and Olive (Lyman) Plummer, born Jan. 13, 1780, and died at Salem, May 15, 1854, to the proprietors of the Athenaeum. The Athenaeum is managed by trustees, annually chosen by the stockholders; each shareholder may take out books upon the payment of the annual assessment of five dollars. Trustees, Henry A. Hale, Pres.; Stephen W. Phillips, Joseph N. Ashton, John Robinson, George R. Lord, William C. Waters, Arthur W. West, Nathaniel A. Very, Henry A. Hale, Pres.; Joseph N. Ashton, Clerk; Ralph B. Harris, Treas.; Mrs. Arthur R. Stone, Librarian; Miss Harriet M. Taggard, Assistant.

13. MARINE SOCIETY OF SALEM. Instituted March 25, 1766. Inc. April, 1772. Meetings held last Thursday evenings in Jan., April, July and October at Franklin Building. Officers elected at annual meeting in October. Charles O. Welch, Master; W. Frank Powars, Dep. Master; Edward B. Trumbull, Treas. and Agent; J. C. Entwistle, Clerk.

14. THE TRUSTEES OF THE

SALEM EAST INDIA MARINE SOCIETY. Founded in October, 1770. Incorporated in 1801. Membership restricted "to persons who have actually navigated the seas beyond the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn." Its chief objects: 1st, to assist the widows and children of deceased members who may need it, from the funds of the society; 2d, to collect such facts and observations as tend to the improvement and security of navigation; 3d, to form a museum of natural and artificial curiosities, particularly such as are to be found beyond the Cape of Good Hope and Cape Horn. The collections formed were first deposited in the building on the corner of Essex and Washington streets. In 1804 they were removed to the Salem Bank Building, on the site of Downing's Block, and in 1825 to the East India Marine Hall, erected for the accommodation of this valuable collection. In 1857 the building was sold to the Trustees of the Peabody Museum, and the museum was placed in the hands of the Museum Trustees as a permanent deposit. Although no longer conducting the museum, or making nautical observations, charitable objects of the society are fully carried out through the means of a fund of considerable amount in possession of the society. Meetings are held quarterly at E. I. Marine Hall. Officers elected second Wednesday in January. Pres., Walter H. Trumbull; Sec. and Treas., J. Clifford Entwistle; Committee of Observations, Edward B. Trumbull, Walter H. Trumbull; Distributing Committee, J. Clifford Entwistle, Edward D. Trumbull, James F. Johnson.

15. THE SALEM FRATERNITY was organized in 1869 to provide evening instruction and amusement for those who "being confined to their work during the day need recreation at the close of their labors." 4000 members.

A few years experience showed that the greatest need was among the boys and young men. Thus began the work of the oldest "Boys Club" in the country. After renting various rooms, a permanent and suitable "home" for the work was secured in 1899 in the "Old Bank Building," one of the two buildings in Salem designed by Bulfinch at 11 Central st. The rooms are open from 8 a. m. to 12 m. and from 3.30 to 5.30 p. m. from Nov. to March, 7 to 9 p. m. (except holidays). The attendance is about 70,000 by some 4,000 different boys every year. The entertainment and instruction is largely provided by volunteer helpers.

The Indoor Work. The gymnasium and free shower baths are open every day from 8 a. m. to 12 m. and 7 to 9 p. m. except holidays.

Hand Craft Classes are maintained in printing, cane seating, cobbling, carpentering, fret sawing, wood burning, wood carving from fall to spring. There is also a chance for foreign boys to learn English even when the evening schools are not in session. Several Debating and Study Clubs are maintained also a Newsboy's Club.

A Reading Room and Library of 1200 "Books for Boys" are maintained, also a penny savings bank and a free employment bureau.

The Game Room is perhaps the most important of any department, for it is here the personal influence of the volunteer helper touches the life of the boy in his play, and with lasting effect.

The Outdoor Work has consisted of Holiday Excursions, Baseball and outdoor games, and ten weeks of "Camping Out" during the summer, when 200 boys are given "a week in the country" at the permanent camp at Sawyer's Island, Rowley, Mass.

The Officers are: Pres., Francis Brown; Sec., George W. Mansfield; Treas., Stephen W. Phillips; 34 Chestnut; Supt., Herbert C. Farwell; Janitor, James E. Wendell.

Rooms are open every day except holidays, 8 to 12 a. m. and 7 to 9 p. m.

A training school for nurses is connected with the hospital, its object being to supply Salem and vicinity with educated nurses. The time required for the education of a nurse is two and one-half years, at the end of which diplomas are given to those pupils who have fulfilled all the requirements.

17. SALEM PUBLIC LIBRARY. On the first of December, 1887, the heirs of Capt. John Bertram offered to the city his late residence on Essex street to be used for the purpose of establishing a Public Library. On the twenty-seventh of December, 1887, the city accepted the gift, and instructed its committee to petition the Legislature for authority to issue bonds to the amount of $25,000 for the use of the library. The library was opened to the public for the delivery of books, July 8, 1889. There are now (1914) in the library 60,000 vols. By the provision of the deed of gift, the management of the library is vested in a board of seven
