Beverly Evening Times

Is the home paper of the progressive city which has the smallest foreign born population and the highest average payroll of any municipality in the commonwealth. It is a welcome visitor every day in almost every home of Beverly and its environs, and has a wonderfully effective power as an advertising medium.

Its news and editorial columns are something more than a dull chronicle of routine events. They record the happenings of the home field brightly and entertainingly and voice the hopes, aspirations and spirit of the constituency which the paper serves faithfully and without prejudice. Published every week day afternoon 169 Cabot Street.
