SOCIETIES AND COMPANIES.

Plummer Hall.

This building is located at 134 Essex street. It was erected in 1856, from funds left by the late Miss Caroline Plummer, to the proprietors of the Salem Athenæum.

The first story is appropriated to a portion of the library and the historical collections of the Essex Institute, and has two ante-rooms, one of which contains the periodicals and publications of societies received in exchange; the other, the manuscripts and historical collections. In the large hall in the rear has been arranged the newspapers, pamphlets, and books of reference of the Institute.

The second story has a similar arrangement of rooms. The western ante-room is appropriated to the use of the librarian, and some of the principal works of reference, and the new books belonging to the Salem Athenæum; the eastern, to the libraries of the Essex South District Medical Society and the Essex Agricultural Society. The alcoves on the western side of the large room in the rear contain the library of the Salem Athenæum; those on the eastern, that of the Essex Institute. The libraries of the several societies in the building contain about 43,000 bound volumes, besides a large collection of pamphlets.

Plummer Farm School of Reform for Boys.

This school was founded by the munificent bequest of Miss Caroline Plummer. It is a school for the instruction, employment, and reformation of juvenile offenders in the city of Salem. The amount of the bequest was $25,000, present fund $50,000; and the school went into operation September 23, 1870.

A Board of ten Trustees was chosen by the Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Salem, in May, 1855, and incorporated by an Act of the Legislature on the 21st of May, 1855. The first meeting of the Board of Trustees was held November 26, 1855, at which time a code of By-Laws was adopted, and officers were elected. The Board of Trustees for 1871 is as follows:—

President, William I. Bowditch. Treasurer and Secretary, Gilbert L. Streeter. Trustees, William I. Bowditch, William Chase, Jas. Kimball, Samuel P. Andrews, Geo. R. Chapman, G. L. Streeter, Aaron Perkins, Thos. Nichols, jr. John C. Lee, James B. Curwen. Supt., C. A. Johnson.

Salem Athenæum.

Consists of all those members of the Massachusetts Medical Society who reside in Lynn, Swampscott, Nahant, Saugus, Marblehead, Salem, Danvers, Middleton, Beverly, Wenham, Topsfield, Ipswich, Hamilton, Essex, Rockport, Gloucester, Manchester, and Peabody.

The Society was formed in 1805, in pursuance of a vote of the Massachusetts Medical Society, authorizing the establishment of district or subordinate associations. The Library is annually increased, and contains about 1,000 volumes; it is deposited in Plummer Hall, where the regular quarterly meetings of the society are held.

Annual meeting on Tuesday of the week preceeding the meeting of the Massachusetts Medical Society.

Officers elected, 1871.—President, Edward B. Peirson, of Salem; Vice-President, James M. Nye, of Lynn; Treasurer, William Mack, of Salem; Secretary, Amos H. Johnson, of Salem; Librarian, William Neilson, of Salem.

Essex Institute.

Incorporated in 1848, was formed by the union of the Essex Historical Society and the Essex County Natural History Society.

The Library, which contains about 27,000 volumes, with the historical collections, also portraits, including several of the former Presidents of the Historical Society, and some of the early settlers of New England, are deposited in Plummer Hall. The scientific collections have been placed in the custody of the Trustees of the Peabody Academy of Science, and have been arranged, with the Museum of the East India Marine Society, in the East India Marine Hall.

The Institute publishes a Monthly Bulletin and a volume of the historical collections annually.

Two exhibitions of Fruit and Flowers are held monthly, at their rooms in Plummer Hall, during the summer and autumn. Annual meeting on the second Wednesday in May.

Salem Dispensary.

Organized, February, 1820. Incorporated, February, 1831.

Its object has been the relief of the poor by furnishing Medicine and medical advice gratuitously.

In 1859, it was reconstructed on the plan of similar institutions in larger cities, and a central office established at the Town Hall, where the clerk is in attendance every day, Sundays excepted, from 3 to 5, p.m., to receive all applications for the privileges afforded by the institution. Any person approved by the Executive Committee, who shall pay the sum of five dollars per annum, or fifty cents per month, may be entitled to the benefit of the institution for himself and family. Those who may be unable to pay this small assessment, will be provided for gratuitously. The expenses to be paid by an annual subscription.

The city is divided into two districts, the Eastern and the Western, to each of which is assigned a physician and an apothecary. The Eastern district includes all persons who may apply for relief living eastward of St. Peter and Central streets, and in South Salem. The Western district includes those living westward of the above streets, and in North Salem.
